NEED HOUSES FOR MEN AT TORPEDO STATION

Rear Admiral Earle, U. S. N., Says It Will Be Impossible to Carry on Work Unless Action Is Taken.

PLANT WILL BE PERMANENT

Maximum Number of Men To Be Employed Is 1500 And Eighty Per Cent Will Be Skilled Mechanics—It Is Up To Citizens To At Once Erect Houses to Alleviate Present Shortage.

Unless living conditions can be ameliorated, both by providing for the men at the present crisis and also to provide comfortable houses which they may buy and rent in the future, the successful operation of the Naval Torpedo Plant, now nearing completion in this city, will be seriously imperiled.

This statement was made by Rear Admiral Ralph Earle, U. S. N., chief of the Bureau of Ordinance, yesterday afternoon to a committee composed of M. B. Harlow and W. A. Smoot who waited on him to discuss the housing situation here. They were accompanied by Capt. William S. Miller, U. S. N., in charge of the station here.

Rear Admiral Earle expressed hope that the citizens will at once provide accommodations for the men, about eighty per cent of whom will be skilled mechanics, and many of whom desire to purchase homes here. He directs attention to the fact that unless something is done it will be impossible to carry on the work.

The plant he says will be permanent, which dispels the idea of some persons that it was just a plant erected for use during the war. It will give employment to 1,500 men when running at full capacity. The minimum number of men who will be employed is estimated at from 500 to 800.

Admiral Earle's authorized statement follows:

Regarding the new Naval Torpedo Station erected at Alexandria, Rear Admiral Earle, Chief of the Bureau of Ordinance, states that the housing conditions for employees has become acutely bad, and unless something is done at once to accommodate the force of people employed there, great difficulty will be encountered and it will be impossible to carry on the work.

Living accommodations are required for men who will be arriving as additions to the force now employed at the rate of from thirty to fifty per month and some of those who have already come here from other localities are obtaining temporary living accommodations with great difficulty and discomfort, and in some cases at exorbitant charges.

These men are all men of high character and skilled at their work and some of them have been employed in government work for more than fifteen years.

The Torpedo Station is a permanent plant for the manufacture of torpedoes, but unless living conditions can be ameliorated, both by providing for the men at the present crisis and also to provide comfortable houses which they may buy and rent in the future, the successful operation of the plant will be seriously imperiled.

It is hoped that the citizens of Alexandria will interest themselves in providing living accommodations for these men.

The minimum number that will be necessary to operate the plant permanently on a conservative basis is estimated at from five to eight hundred, and when operated at full capacity the plant will employ about fifteen hundred men. About eighty per cent of these will be skilled mechanics mostly men with families, who must have good living accommodations and who desire to purchase permanent homes in the city.

During the next six months new men will probably be taken on for employment at the rate of about thirty to fifty per month and they must be provided for in order not to lose their services. It is estimated that eighty per cent of these will be men with families who will desire to purchase homes, but who also will have to be accommodated in their interim with temporary living facilities, and it should be borne in mind that the station being of permanent character, it will be to the advantage of the entire community to obtain this desirable addition to their citizens.

COMPANIES CLAIMS GAINS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 21.—The steel strike was reviewed by the National Committee for Organizing Iron and Steel Workers at an extraordinary session which began here late yesterday. Chairman John Fitzpatrcik, of Chicago, declared that the beginning of the fifth week of the strike found the men in better position than ever before.

His statement did not agree with those made by steel companies. The Carnegie Steel Company announced that its Pittsburgh district plants were operating fully 85 per cent of capacity with the exception of the Duquesne Mill, which was on full time with a full force. Independent mills also reported improvement in the number of men employed and tonnage.

In the Chicago district production was 75 per cent of normal, all plants being in operation, some with unskilled men.

In Youngstown no additional mills started except the works of the Carnegie Steel Company. Attempts to resume full operations in Cleveland failed.

ACCIDENT PREVENTIVE DRIVE

Local Railroad Men Eager to Measure Up During Its Progress

The National Railroad Accident Prevention Drive, which started October 18 will end October 31. The railroad men here are doing everything possible to make a 100 per cent in this drive. E. H. Coapman, Federal manager, has sent a telegram urging all to pass through the period without causing injury and he adds "Only by keeping this constantly in mind can a perfect record be made."

The railroad men are deeply interested and many have already prepared poems and written articles on how to prevent accidents. The following poem was composed by J. W. Collins, a machinist employed at the Southern shops here.

Southern railroad leader of them all
Onward through the South at the Farmers call
United efforts all along the line
That is why the trains run on time
Heavy trains are what we like,
Equipment is good, pull trains with delight
Running safety first is what we are taught
No more chance work or you be caught.

POISONED CANDY

Richmond Woman Arrested After Daughter in Law Receive Deadly Sweets

Richmond, Oct. 21.—Charged with sending poisoned candy to her daughter in law, Mrs. Lucy Harwood Marshall, Mrs. Helen R. Marshall was arrested yesterday by Federal authorities here and charged with a violation of the postal laws and of section 217 of the penal code. (Mrs. Marshall is the wife of William Marshal, of 401 1-2 East Main street, and the daughter in law is the wife of William Marshall, Jr., of 1620 Park Avenue.

Mrs. Marshall, Sr., was indicted by the Federal grand jury, which convened at the beginning of the present term of the United States District Court. The indictment created somewhat of a sensation, as those involved are prominent in social circles of Richmond. When the indictment was returned it was stated that Mrs. Marshall was in Philadelphia, but that she would return to Richmond.

Upon her return here yesterday she was taken into custody by Deputy Marshal Harrison and Post Office Inspector Dixon. Later she was released on $1,000 bail to appear before the United States District Court at a special session which will be held on December 9.

Federal authorities state that the candy was mailed on June 11. Mrs. Marshall, Jr., is said to have received the box, but, on examining the choolate coated marshmallows, found that they contained powdered glass and arsenic. It is stated that poison had been pushed up in the bottom of each piece of candy and was easily detected.

Mrs. Marshall, Sr., it is stated, has not been on good terms with Mrs. Marshall, Jr., for some time, and that the young couple have been living with the girl's father, George R. Harwood, 1620 Park Avenue, since their marriage.

When the indicted woman was placed under arrest she denied that she had sent the poisoned candy, and declared that the whole case against her was one of "spite work" She is about 45 years of age.

HUSBAND SEEKSK DIVORCE

Charging misconduct on the part of his wife while he was serving in the world war, Herbert F. Weser yesterday filed a suit for absolute divorce in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia against Fern Lena Weser, According to the bill, the Wesers were married in Alexandria, Va., September 27, 1913. They have one child.

Mr. Weser, in his bill, states that his wife left him May 20, 1916. Weser asks the court to give him the custody of their child.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER IN FAIRFAX COUNTY

Body of Ida Carter Colored Found Today Near Warwick

WOMAN SHOT IN BACK

Believed Woman Was Attacked and Shot as She Endeavored to Run Away—Search For Stranger

Ida Carter, colored, about 25 years old, wife of Howard Carter, who lives at Riverside, Fairfax county, was mysteriously shot and killed yesterday afternoon at Warwick, Fairfax county, about three miles south of Alexandria.

The body of the woman was found lying face downward in the woods a short distance from the station at 1 o'clock this morning by her father, Nathan Webb, who went out in search of his daughter. The Carter woman had gone to visit her father.

Search was instituted by her father which resulted in finding the body. Her father afterward recalled that shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon he was attracted by the firing of a shot but gave the matter no farther attention and he believes that his daughter was killed at that time.

A colored man wearing soldiers' trousers, a black coat and slouch hat was later seen by neighbors walking rapidly away and it is believed by them that this man, now sought by the Fairfax authorities, may shed some light on the murder.

Justice Kirby is investigating the case. The Fairfax authorities are of the opinion that a man endeavored to attack the woman and she resisted and broke away from him and she was shot as she ran.

The woman in addition to her husband leaves several children.

MOOSE INITIATE BIG CLASS

Address Delivered Following Ceremony Last Night

A class of fifty candidates were initiated last night by the Order of Moose. Following the initiation E. A. Mifka, district supervisor and representative of the Supreme Lodge of Mooseheart, delivered a stirring address in which he thoroughly reviewed the principals of the order and told of the wonderful work being accomplished for the little children at Mooseheart.

Addresses also were made by Herman Chichester and Mr. Merrow and Bert O'Brien.

The open charter of this campaign has been in progress for the past three weeks and the total number of applications at Bert O'Brien's office today is 140.

The slogan of the Moose is 1,000 members and Mr. O'Brien says that with the co-operation he is now receiving he feels confident that the desired goal will be attained before the close of the big drive in the interest of Moosedom.

NEGRO MURDERER SLAIN

Daughter of Arkansas Farmer Shot to Death by Black Seeking Revenge

Marianna, Ark., Oct. 21.—Alex Wilson, negro, who shot and killed Ruth Murrah, a 19 year old wealthy white girl, yesterday, while she and Miss Estelle Clifton were riding near the scene of the crime last night by a posse of citizens, after he had been captured by another posse and was being captured by another posse and was being brought to Marianna, according to word received here.

It is reported here that Mr. Clifton and the negro Saturday had a disagreement over a settlement over some cotton on which the negro had worked.

ADOPT CONSTITUTION

American Legion Will Greet State Officers Here November 9.

An enthusiastic meeting of Alexandria Post No. 24, American Legion was held last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. The most important business was the reading of the constitution and by-laws as drafted by special committee, which were adopted.

The next regular meeting is scheduled to be held November 7, at which time Comrades Wilbur Hall, of Leesburg, and John Paul, of Harrisonburg, both state delegates of the National Convention at Minneapolis will be present to tell of the activities and progress of the Legion throughout the State. The meeting will end with an informal social with refreshments and smokes. It is hoped that all members and those desirous of joining will make special effort to be present, as it is desired to make this a success as well as to greet the State officials.

Sunday, November 9, has been designated by the National Headquarters as "American Legion Sunday," on which day preachers throughout the whole country are to be asked to devote their sermons or at least a part to the ideals of the Legion. The Alexandria ministers are to be asked to participate.

ELKS TO RETURN TO NEW HOME

Action Taken at Meeting Last Night

Alexandria Lodge of Elks at its meeting held last night decided to return to its former home by November 1 or as soon thereafter as possible.

During the war period the Elks leased their handsome home to the War Camp Community Service and up to the signing of the armistice 16,000 men in uniform enjoyed the hospitality of the War Camp Community Service.

The Elks in the meantime occupied their former home, directly adjoining its new home, which is located at Prince and Royal streets.

The old home will be rented by the trustees of the lodge just as soon as the Elks vacate and the upper floor it is expected will be rented out to different lodges.

INVESTIGATE INVESTIGATORS

Representative Aswell Declares Republicans Are Frittering Away Time and Money to the Disgust of Country

Charging the Republican majority in the House with squandering great sums of money in "noisy investigations to find campaign thunder for 1920," Representative Aswell, Democrat, of Louisiana yesterday introduced a series of eight resolutions proposing an investigation of the investigators.

While the people demand real constructive legislation, Mr. Aswell declared, the Republicans refuse to act and fritter away the time with irrelevant political matters, "to the discouragement and disgust of the country."

One glaring instance of the majority's inactivity, the Louisiana member said, is the undisturbed slumber of soldiers' relief measures, on which they "can secure action any day they have the courage to tackle them."

TO ANSWER CHARGE

Berlin, Oct. 21.—Count Johann Heinrich von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the United States, has arrived here from Munich in answer to a summons of the national assembly committee investigating the responsibility of individual members of the old regime in bringing about and prolonging the war, as well as for the failures to take advantage of the opportunities to make peace.

Dr. Von Bethmann Hollweg former imperial chancellor; Dr. Gottlieb von Jagow, former foreign minister; Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, who succeeded him; Dr. Karl Helfferich, former finance minister; Admiral von Capelle, who was minister of marine, and Gen. Erich Ludendorff, all have been "invited" to attend and give testimony.

Those men will be confronted by Count von Bernstorff, who alleges that his efforts for peace through President Wilson and Col. E. M. House in December, 1916, and January, 1917, were making good headway when Berlin ruined all by a renewal of the ruthless U-boat warfare, and that the government ignored his repeated warnings that such a measure would bring America into the war on the side of the allies.

DISORDER MARKS STRIKE

Several Arrests Grow Out of Meat Workers Walkout in Baltimore

Baltimore, Oct. 21.—With the meat packers firm on their declaration that they will never submit to the closed shop principle, and the strike agitators equally firm in their resolution to fight for it, the strike in the meat packing industry yesterday was virtually at a deadlock. The day brought forth the most serious disorders since last Thursday, when the strike began. The men stood about the plants in angry groups, but, according to the packers their tactics failed to keep the plants from running as usual.

A representative of the employer stated last night that each day find them in a better position to do without the men who walked out. Most of the latter held laboring positions, the duties of which new men are learning rapidly.

The strikers are reported to be ed backed by the radical wing.

The union agitators are still hoping that the beef butchers will join the pork butchers in the strike, although two separate calls have failed to induce more than a handful to walk out.

HOPEWELL AGAIN ON MAP

Virginia Town Looks Forward to Industrial Boom

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 21.—Hopewell is again forging to the front, and it is predicted by the business men of the former Magic City that in the very near future it will be of the busiest industrial centers in the South. Already machinery for the plant of the Hopewell Trunk and Bag Company has arrived and is being installed. The Dupont Hotel and the Dupont Club are to be reopened, and it is stated that 800 men are now at work inside th Dupont plant getting it ready for the coming of manufacturers.

Another large industry to be established at Hopewell is said to be a rubber tire factory. A large advertising conern of Philadelphia has closed a contract with the Dupont Chemical Company for $60.0000 to be used in advertising the Petersburg-Hopwell district, guaranteeing that there will be 16,000 inquiries about Hopewell and Petersburg.

ONCE RICH; NOW BEGS HOME

Ex-Millionaire and Swindler Applies at Danville, N. Y., Poorhouse

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Alonso J. Whiteman, aged 61, formerly one of the most notorious swindlers in the United States, has applied to the authorities of his home town, Dansville, near here, for admission to the county poorhouse there. A graduate of Hamilton College, he went in his early manhood to Minnesota to look after his fathers lumber interests there.

He became a millionaire in the Gopher State and was elected state senator. He then operated as one of the boldest confidence men in the country, and as a result served several terms in prison. Once, while in custody of an officer, he leaped from a fast moving train and escaped.

OHIOANS TAR SOCIALIST

Hamilton, O., Oct. 21.—Following his experience early Sunday of being chloroformed, taken to a wood north of the city and there treated to a coat of tar and feathers, John E. Seiger, local Socialist leader, yesterday received a letter advising him to leave the city in ten days on pain of being more severely treated.

Steiger did not indicate whether or not he would comply. He was suffering yesterday from severe nervous shock.

Distribution of circulars, signed by Steiger and another Socialist, were said to have led to Sunday's attack. The circulars, it is said, attacked the Government.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear son and husband, Edgar F. Ratcliffe, who departed this life one year ago today, October 21st, 1918.
Dear Edgar how we loved and miss you
In words we cannot tell,
But engraved deep within our hearts
Your image will always dwell.
Peaceful be thy rest dear Edgar
It is sweet to breathe your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.
A loving one from us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

REAR ADMIRAL EARLE'S STATEMENT

Elsewhere in the Gazette will be found Rear Admiral Earle's observations concerning demands for housing which will, in the near future, be made upon Alexandria. This officer also refers to present conditions in this city which are inconveniencing many workmen now employed in preparing the torpedo plant recently erected in this city for operations. The Rear Admiral refers not only to the scarcity of suitable homes in this city, but also to the high rents at present prevailing. His object is, of course, to stimulate building here, and he follows lines several times presented by the Gazette during the past few weeks. We have long since sounded the alarm and the Rear Admiral calls attention to the fact that the time is at hand when some movement should be made to meet the demands that are sure to be made upon us.

During the past year the people of Alexandria have watched with interest the erection of the torpedo plant in our city. We have rejoiced to see it rise, knowing that it means a large increase in the population of our city. It has brought many things to our minds, reminiscences of long ago. When the retrocession fever raged in Alexandria in the early forties, and a majority of our citizens were urging the return of Alexandria to the state of Virginia, it was urged that not a single government building had been erected on the south side of the Potomac river although Alexandria was then a part of the District of Columbia. The government at this time, notwithstanding the act that our city is no longer a part of the District of Columbia has erected a plant which means much for our old town. Coming as it did in the wake of the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, we realized that blessings often come in a dual form, and Alexandria, long seeming to be neglected, immediately took its proper place upon the map of the country.

We give and take in this world and we must not suppose that blessings are to be showered upon us while we sit passively and act the part of receivers only. We should appreciate our blessings and perform our respective parts is not only welcoming but making suitable preparations to receive new citizens who will soon be knocking at our doors. We earnestly hope all will realize the importance of taking due notice and acting accordingly.

HOLDUPS IN THIS LOCALITY

The murder yesterday of a young colored woman near Warwick station on the electric railway, a short distance south of Alexandria, has caused terror to the residents of that section of Fairfax county. The woman was shot to death by a negro who made his escape. The authorities of Fairfax county were immediately notified, as were also those of Alexandria and Washington.

While the operations of footpads in this vicinity are becoming more active all the time, this is the first murder which has been reported. Three different holdups occurred in West End last Saturday night, it is reported. Highway robberies have taken place in our streets, in one instance, in broad day light. A number of persons have been accosted at night in different places in the city and relieved of money, watches, etc. In virtually all cases the highwaymen are said to be negroes. It has become dangerous for people to go alone on some of the roads leading out of Alexandria.

Half a century ago the road between Alexandria and Washington was infested by highwaymen, and many robberies performed at the points of pistols were reported to the police at that time. It seems that conditions at present are equally as serious, as persons are being held up and robbed within the shadow of the Capitol of the United States.

It has been suggested that some white men blacken their faces before playing the part of footpads, in order to make it appear that negroes commit crimes.

A young negro man was before the Police Court yesterday morning to answer the charge of carrying a pistol. He had been arrested Saturday night, and his employer left $100 as collateral for his appearance. At the trial the darkey stated that he walked over the road from Gum Springs to this city on a business errand, and carried the pistol for protection, not knowing at what time he would be stopped by a highwayman. A minister of the gosped testified that the negro was not a lawbreaker, but a well-disposed man. His employer testified to this. The accused said he was never arrested before in his life.

His employer who had advanced the money in order that the darkey could be liberated asked that the court deal leniently with the defendant who had made a mistake in entering the city with the pistol on his person. The maximum fine is $100, and the minimum $20. He was assessed the latter figures in order that the dignity of the law might be sustained.

THE APPEAL OF THE JEWS

The present movement of the Jews for aid for their distressed brethren in the old world is not the traditional method of Israelites in making appeals for funds for charitable objects. Usually they appeal only to their own people in spite of the fact that their generous response to all calls for aid from non-Jewish sources would entitle them to ask support from the whole public for their own charities. As a rule, however, they do not do this.

As a contemporary puts it, "the forthcoming campaign is one of such large scope that it cannot successfully be waged by the Jews alone. The Jews of Europe have been the greatest sufferers from the war. Millions of them are in distress through no fault of their own; hundreds of thousands of them will starve to death unless vast sums of money are raised in this country. The problem is not primarily a Jewish problem. It is, as the Times says, a world problem imposed by the world war. It is not a question of humanity. The facts are so plain that it can hardly be doubted that non-Jews will respond to this appeal as generously as the Jews themselves have responded to general philanthropic appeals in the past."

SELF-EXILED AMERICAN

William Waldorf Astor was a disagreeable man. He was autocratic and arbitrary to such a degree that he missed his proper sphere by not having been born several centuries earlier. Grandson of a poor German who came to this country and amassed a fortune in the fur trade, son of a rather agreeable person who invested heavily in New York real estate which has become very valuable, William Waldorf Astor felt that he was entitled by his wealth to a distinction he could not achieve in this country and transferred his citizenship to Great Britain, where he does not seem to have been much happier than at home. In time his wealth secured him a peerage, but little of that recognition which he craved. He took small part in public affairs.

Unless it was Stephen Girard, the original Astor was the richest of Americans and a public spirited citizen, Girard's wealth is still working for the good of mankind. Much of the Astor wealth will go into British coffers at a time it is much needed. This so called "death duties" in England cover property "of a certain field of [illegible] and there will be a comfortable sum added to a treasury that needs all possible enrichment."

The late Mr. Astor was a man of intelligence, but in his self imposed exile he found little real contentment. The wealth which comes to people is worth while only as it is administered as a stewardship, and there is nothing in this country which Mr. Astor has done which will serve to keep his memory green. In this he differed from many others of our countrymen who have expended the fortunes they made in the public interest. In transferring his nationality Mr. Astor made a mistake if he supposed that he was to find a land where wealth was to be forever conserved, worshipped and held intact for future generations.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

TWO KILLED IN EXPLOSION

Iowa Falls, Iowa, Oct. 21—Two men were killed, another may die and several others were more or less seriously injured following two explosions in a fire which destroyed the produce plant of Swift nad Co., late Sunday afternoon.

J. C. Martin was struck bf a flying timber, and died a few hours later. A second explosion about 10 minutes later threw a piece of iron into the crowd watching the fire, and killed Melvin Shaffer.

The explosion was attributed to two ammonia tanks used in connection with the refrigerating system.

DEATH OF DI CELLARE

Count V. Macchi di Cellare, Italian Ambassador to the United States since 1913, died in the Emergency Hospital, Washington last night just as he was about to undergo an operation. He had been ill since Saturday.

The Ambassador was removed from the embassy to the hospital last night after his physicians had decided that only an operation would have his life He reached the hospital at 9 o'clock and while on the operating table before the operation was started his death occurred at 9.40 o'clock. His death was pronounced as due to mesentric thrombosis.

The Ambassador was 53 years old.

THE PRESIDENTS CONDITION

Announcement yesterday that President Wilson had appointed Owne D. Young, of Schenectady, N. Y., as a member of the public group of the National Industrial Conference, was cited by White House officials as refuting reports that Mr. Wilson's illness had rendered him incapable of attending to any business. These officials said it was not the first official act the President had taken since he became ill. Rear Admiral Grayson, his physician, it was asserted, however, would continue to do what he could to dissuade the patient from giving his attention to any affairs other than those regarded as absolutely essential. The appointment of Mr. Young was considered necessary, inasmuch as a place in the public group of the Industrial Conference had been vacated by the ill health of Fuller Callaway, the delegate originally appointed.

Unofficial reports at the White House indicated the President's condition had changed but little throughout yesterday, although a correction of his digestive disturbances of yesterday had been effected. There was nothing in the conversations about the offices of the White House to indicate a recurrrence of his glandular ailment, and members of his household who are familiar with his condition displayed throughout the day an air of optimism.

The condition of the President early in the day was noted in the following bulletin, signed by Rear-Admirals Grayson and Stitt and Dr. Ruffin:

The President's digestive disturbance has subsided almost completely. After a fairly good night he is comfortable this morning.

Callus? "Gets-It" Will Peel It Off!

Nothing on Earth Like Simple "Gets It" for Corns or Calluses.

A callus, or thickened skin on the sole of the foot, which often makes walking a misery is of the same nature as a corn. "Gets-It"

Use "Gets-It" and Dance, Even with Corns removes it as easily as it does the toughest corns. By using a few drops of "Gets-It" on the callus, you will be able to peel it off with your fingers, in one complete piece just as you would a banana peel. It leaves the skin free and smooth as though you never had a callus. You need no more fussy plasters, sticky tape, "package" bandages, knives or scissors for corns or calluses. "Gets-It" is the national corn remover, the biggest on earth, used by millions. It never fails. You'll work, play and dance at ease in spite of corns.

"Gets-It," the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'f'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Alexandria and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by RICHARD GIBSON, FRANK WARFIELD.

STEEL STRIKERS' AIM

Russian unions which have been organized in the municipal Pennsylvania and Ohio steel districts are seeking to organize an "Industrial Soviet" in the United States, the Senate Committe investigating the steel strike was told yesterday by Jacob Margolis, of Pittsburgh who identified himself as an attorney for the I. W. W.

Frankly stating his belief that organized government is unnecessary, Margolis told the committee it had been the purpose to make Moorehead Hall, Pittsburgh, the headquarters for all radicals of all types, and that he had lectured there "on industrial production organization versus resolutions." He explained that he believed the ends sought should be obtained by peaceful methods.

Margolis said William Z. Foster, secretary of the steel strike committee, had sought to keep the radical elements behind the steel strike. He conceded that after a conference he had with Foster one night last May, the I. W. WW., anarchist syndicalists and the Prussian Union threw all the support they could behind the strike.

Foster was described by Margolis as being really bitter against the I. W. W., but he conceded that the strike committee secretary had disavowed to him any responsibility for statements attacking the I. W. W., which were contained in a letter of the strike committee to President Wilson.

"Foster believed that he could still retain his integrity as a syndicalist while going into the American Federation of Labor and being a 'borer within,' as he put it," said Margolis. "I don't think he could."

"His idea was to retain his views, was it not, and get leadership in the American Federation of Labor with which to forward them?" asked Seantor Kenyon.

"Something like that," Margolis returned.

Margolis said the American Federation of Labor was "in a state of flux now."

"Out of the last 70 strikes in this country," he said, "62 were authorized showing the great disaffection within the ranks of older labor unions."

With the purpose of showing the interest of I. W. W. leaders in the steel strike, Chairman Kenyon read a letter written to Margolis by Vincent St. John, described as a former general secretary of the I. W. W., saying that the writer had seen Foster, that "things were stirring" and that a successful strike could be organized.

"Are the I. W. W. involved in this proposed coal mine strike?" asked Senator McKellar.

"There are many of them in the mines," Margolis said, "but as a union matter it is purely under direction of the United Mine Workers."

YOU NEVER CAN TAME A WILD CAT

Mr. Dodson Warns Against Use of Treacherous, Dangerous Calomel

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides it may salivate you, while if you take Dodsons Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless pleasant and safe to give to children they like it.

VIRGINIA MONEY FOR VIRGINIA MANHOOD

GIVE UNTIL IT FEELS GOOD

The Y. M. C. A. is to greatly enlarge the scope of its work in Virginia, in the cities, towns and country districts throughout the State.

A working plan has been laid down whose benefits will be shared by every Virginia home. It is a program that makes for cleaner and better manhood a higher order of citizenship and happier homes throughout the length and breadth of the State.

Hon. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, says: "The Y. M. C. A. makes an appeal and furnishes inspiration, instruction and education to young men which is invaluable. An investment in this service to young men will pay a dividend larger than we ever computed."

The new enlarged program of the Y. M. C. A. is heartily endorsed by good people everywhere. They are giving to the cause just as freely as their means will allow.

A large sum of money is needed to carry on this work. For this money an earnest appeal is made to all Virginians. It is a great and a noble cause, and every dollar—yes, every penny given will help the cause and will enrich the giver.

Your immediate section will at once become a center of Y. M. C. A. activity and will share in the fruits of this campaign. Will you not help make it a great success?

The campaign starts October 20 and closes October 30.

GARY REMAINS FIRM

Head of Steel Corporation Still Insists on Open Shop.

Arbitration of the steel strike, demanded by the labor group, should not be considered by the National Industry Conference, Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel Corporation, and a member of the public group, told the conference yesterday.

The corporation will not agree to any arbitration and stands firmly on its previously announced policy as regards the question, Gary said. It was his first pronouncement to the conference.

Judge Gary had scarcely finished reading his statement before Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor and chairman of the labor group, was on his feet to express the disappointment of labor at the pronouncement of the Steel Corporation.

"I desire to make a brief statement in relation to the question under a discussion, as well as others submitted to this conference," Judge Gary said. "Further explanation of any vote I may register probably will be necessary.

"Like other members of the conference, I recognize that the public interest must always be considered as of the first importance; that all private interests must be subordinated.

"I am heartily in accord with the desire of the President firmly to establish proper and satisfactory relations between all groups of citizens connectd with industry, including, of course, what has been designated as capital and labor.

"I believe in conciliation, co-operation and arbitration whenever practicable without sacrificing principle.

"I am of the fixed opinion that the pending strike against the steel industry of this country should not be abitrated or compromised nor any action taken by the conference which bears upon that subject.

"Also that there should be maintained in actual practice, without interruption, the open shop, as I understand,—namely, that every man, whether he does or does not belong to a labor union, shall have the opportunity to engage in any line of legitimate employment on terms and conditions agreed upon between employe and employer.

"I am opposed to a policy or practice which unnecessarily limits production, increases costs, deprives the workmen from receiving the highest wage rates resulting from voluntary and reasonable effort, hinders promotion or advancement in accordance with merit or otherwise interferes with the freedom of individual action.

"I am opposed to any action which embraces the vast majority of people, has no special representation in this conference. It does not seem appropriate to say that all labor should receive due consideration, and that it is the obligation and duty of the employers at all times and in every respect to treat justly and liberally our employes, whether organized or unorganized.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1918, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 32 of article 3 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section thirty-two, which is in the following words:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public, and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise; and except, further, that the requirements of this section as to residence and voting qualifications shall not apply in the appointment of persons to fill positions under a municipal government requiring special technical or professional training and experience. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 138 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring, (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-eight, which is in the following words:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion, provide for the compulsory education of children between the ages of eight and twelve years, except such as are weak in body or mind, or can read and write, or are attending private schools, or are excused for cause by the district school trustees.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 138. The general assembly may in its discretion, provide for the compulsory education of children of school age.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 117 of article 8 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter, may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the restrictions on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this Constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality.

The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population, but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurer and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 117. (a) General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may, by general law or by special act, (passed in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution) provide for the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to, and unaffected by any of the provisions of this article except those of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and twenty-five, except so far as the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five recognize the office of mayor and the power of veto) one hundred and twenty-six, one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight of this article and except those mentioned in sub-section (a) of this section. The term of office of mayor in any of said sections shall include the body exercising the legislative authority for the city or town, and all ordinances enacted and published or adopted by such body shall have the same force and effect for all purposes as ordinances enacted or adopted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-three of this article. But such organization and government shall apply only to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of those qualified voters of any such city or town voting in an election to be held for the purpose, as may be provided by law.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio, and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 133 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (the majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to section one hundred and thirty-three, article nine, of the Constitution of Virginia, be and is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly at the first regular session held after the next general election of members of the house of delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-three, of article nine, which is in the following words:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be not more than three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

Men and women may serve as school trustees in said districts, and in cities and in towns forming separate school districts.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 134 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing) That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-four, which is in the following words:

Section 134. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued, except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 134. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to construct, or reconstruct, public roads, to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

A RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 136 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next session of the general assembly.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-six, which is in the following words:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate five mills on the dollar in any one year, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided, that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate in any one year a rate of levy to be fixed by law, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided, that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of amendments proposed to the Constitution and agreed to by the General Assembly of Virginia, session 1918, and the same is published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act of the General Assembly, approved February 3, 1904.

Clerk House of Delegates of Virginia.

5000 REDS SLAIN

Entire Division of Trotzky's Soviet Army is Routed by Cossacks

London, Oct. 21.—Important fresh victories by the anti-Bolshevist forces were reported in a war office statement last last night.

The entire Fourteenth Division of Trotsky's Soviet army has been routed by Cossacks west of the River Khoper. Five thousand prisoners and many guns were taken. Southwest of Orel, 10,000 Lettish and Chinese troops have been almost surrounded near Kromi. Half of this force was destroyed, while the others fled in panic to escape annihilation.

In the southeast, the Bolsheviki, facing Gen. Denekine's front have been reinforced and in a surprise attack succeeded in temporarily re occupying Kiev They were driven out again but are still hanging on to the suburbs, where fighting still rages.

MOBS BREAK UP OPERA

Jeers of Service Men in New York Drown the Singers' Voices

New York, Oct. 21.—The German opera, "Die Meistersinger," rendered in German, was sung in the Lexington avenue opera house last night as advertised, despite vigorous protests from the American Legion and countless civilians, but there was little for the audience to enjoy, for outside hundreds of soldiers, sailors and civilians, clamoring to break into the place and stop the production made such a noise that the best parts of the opera were spoiled.

Discordant shouts arose as the mob clashed with the police, penetrating the salon of the theater. So wild was the disorder without that seatholders were not permitted to leave the theater during the intermission.

The police withheld, as far as possible, the use of clubs upon the soldiers and sailors, but the persistence with which the mob clamored to be permitted to break up the performance rendered occasional use of the night sticks imperative to maintain even a semblance of order, and some of the mob received painful cuts.

The forbearance of the police met no like response from the crowds that thronged the streets. Rocks and other missiles were thrown and several officers were severely hurt.

U. S. MAY TAKE COAL MINES.

Seizure Discussed as Last Resort to Prevent Threatened Strike

Higher Washington officials are asking each other whether or not, as a last resort, the Government may not be obliged to exercise its war powers and take over the coal mines of the country in order to avert a crippling if not fatal paralysis and avoid the calamity which would be visited upon it by such a state of affairs as John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers, has predicted.

It is realized, of course, that such a drastic step would not be decided upon until every other expedient had been exhausted and that it might be resisted only by determination by both parties to the present dispute. But the feeling is growing that the strike which has been ordered must never be allowed to eventuate and that if there is no other way to stop it the Federal Government must intervene to the utmost extent of its authority.

Today's conference between the Secretary of Labor and the United Mine Workers and operators of the Central Competitive Field will determine whether or not there is a possible chance first for a compromise between the conflicting forces, and, second, if they are willing to submit their differences to arbitration.

LIEUT. DANIEL H. RUCKER

Government
Thanks Local Engineer for Part in War

WAR DEPARTMENT
Office of the Chief of Engineers
Washington

Lieut. Daniel H. Rucker, Engrs.,
Clarendon, Va.

Sir:

I. The demobilization of the army having made further sacrifice on your part unnecessary, I wish to convey to you my appreciation of your efforts in behalf of your country during the recent emergency. The Engineers of the United States have by their patriotic and self-sacrificing conduct well merited greater thanks and appreciation than it is possible for me or any other one man to give them. I am sure, however, that when it is possible to relate in full the efforts and accomplishments of American Engineers, both overseas and in this country, that the people of the United States will show appreciation of their efforts in no uncertain terms.

2. That you have been one of these Engineers and have contributed your part toward this successful accomplishment constitutes in itself an honor greater than any official expression of opinion. Permit me, however, to extend to you my personal thanks and those of the Corps of Engineers for your efforts and assistance.

Very respectfully,
W. M. BLACK,
Major General, Chief of Engineers.

Lieut. Rucker has done his "bit" toward making the world safe for democracy, as the above letter shows. He is now making a bid for your patronage—carrying out the same principles of fair dealing that earned him this personal letter from the Chief of Engineers. The Alexandria Lumber Co., is in business to serve the public and a personal visit to our plant will prove this. You are sure of a hearty welcome.

EXPLOSION KILLS TWO

Swift & Co. Plant at Iowa Falls, Ia. Destroyed by Fire

Oowa Falls, Ia., Oct 21.—Two men were killed, another may die and several others were more or less seriously injured following two explosions in a fire which destroyed the produce plant of Swift and Company here late yesterday afternoon.

J. C. Martin was struck by a flying timber which was dislodged by an explosion, and died a few hours later. A second explosion, about ten minutes later, threw a piece of iron into the crowd watching the fire and killed Melvin Shaffer.

The explosions are ascribed to two ammonia tanks used in connection with the refrigerating system of the plant.

SMUGGLERS TUNNEL ALPS

700-Yard Passageway Connects Austria and Switzerland

Geneva, Oct 21.—A smugglers' tunnel 700 yards long under the Swiss Austrian border has been found, it is reported, by the police at Kreuzhnzen, a small town at the lower end of Lake Constantino. The nely discovered tunnel leads from an ancient Augustine abbey, in which the smugglers made an Aladdin's cave. They are supposed to have been operating here for several years, handling contraband goods.

The smugglers were given a start by finding a forgotten underground passage extending from the abbey, which they prolonged to bring it out well beyond the Austrian frontier.

NOTICE—New improvements are going in at Rosemont. Each succeeding day you will notice an advance both in street work and building improvements. THEATRES

INGOMAR THEATRE

A strong and original story of the west has been provided by Thos. H. Ince for Charles Ray, the Paramount star, in "The Sheriff's Son," which will be shown at the Ingomar Theatre. The story has color, dramatic power and splendid handling in direction, while it gives Mr. Ray one of the best roles of his screen career. As Royal Beaudry, a boy of the west, who inherits prenatal fear from his mother and who struggles valiantly to down it, he gives a dramatic portrait that is thoroughly human and has great psychological value.

RICHMOND THEATRE

Albert Capellani's newest Pathe production, "The Virtuous Model," will be seen tonight at the Richmond Theatre. Dolores Cassmelli, last seen in "The Unknown Love," is the star of the picture, which is a powerful drama adapted from the famous French play by Pierre Wolff, "The Gutter." In brief, it is the story of a poor girl whose purity wins for her the love of a famous sculptor after a Russian Countess has failed to hold him.

"Why I Put Up With Rats for Years." Writes N. Windsor, Farmer.

"Years ago I bought some rat poison, which nearly killed our fine watch dog. It so scared us that we suffered a long time with rats until my neighbor told me about RAT-SNAP. That's the sure rat killer and a safe one." Three sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by R. E. Knight and Son, Alexandria; Mankin's Store, Falls Church.

Being duly appreciative of the patronage the trade is favoring us with, in addition to our regular "Ads" in the Washington daily papers, we are desirous of calling to your particular notice, through your home paper, the special prices we are selling staple and fancy groceries at all this week, different articles daily, It will be amply worth your time to call personally at our store and make selections.

Canned peas, beans, tomatoes, syrups and other commodities by the case.

We are obliged to again adapt the former prices at which we sold beef, this is necessitated by our continuance of handling only the choicest high grade steer, cattle that is shipped into either this or the Washington market. We personally select the beef, and in the event that you expect to buy steaks, stews or roast cheaper than our prices, you must expect to sacrifice considerable in the way of quality.

Quality with us is of the utmost importance, with you is secondary.
